

Shatin Anglican Church

Children's Worker

Shatin Anglican Church (STC) is seeking a full or part time staff member to lead our children's ministries.

Our Church

Shatin Anglican Church is an international, English-speaking evangelical church of about 300 weekly attending members. We're a diverse and vibrant church in the heart of New Territories in Hong Kong. We are a daughter church of St. Andrew's Church in Kowloon.

Job Purpose

The candidate will oversee a growing children's ministry at STC and work together with other members of the staff in leading the congregation. Currently weekly attendance for children's ministry is around 60.

General Requirement:

- Godly character and self-motivated
- Experience in running children's program and working with volunteers
- Able to recruit and train leaders
- Genuine love for children and children's ministry
- English speaker with excellent communication skills
- Excellent organizational and administrative skills
- Theological training

Children's Work Details

- Being responsible for all the activities for 0-11 year olds in the church
- Preparing and teaching Bible based and age appropriate lessons
- Completing all the admin and rosters for the children's ministry
- Training and supporting the team of 40 volunteers to teach, disciple and build relationships with the children
- Keeping child protection policies up to date and training volunteers in the church's policy
- Partnering with and equipping parents
- Planning the children's talk in the main service each Sunday
- Planning and organizing All Age Services together with the youth worker.

Accountability

He/she will be directly accountable to the minister-in-charge.
